Welcome to the 34th Annual Young At Art Exhibition!

The Young at Art annual juried exhibition celebrates National Youth Art Month by recognizing the excellence, creativity and originality of K-12 students on the Big Island in all public, charter, and private schools, as well as home-schooled students. The theme of the 2022 Young at Art Exhibit is: Place: Spaces That Shape Us. This year's theme asked students to reflect on significant settings that have impacted them in important ways. The theme seeks to examine identity and how it is informed by the spaces around us. We asked students to create from these places, physically or metaphorically, and look at the roles that these spaces have played in shaping who they are today. We encouraged students to explore emotional connections to certain locations, positive or negative, big, small, real, imaginary...

2022 Satellite Exhibits

We're excited to announce East Hawai'i Cultural Center has partnered with our Downtown Hilo friends, the Hilo Public Library (300 Waianuenue Ave.) and Mokupāpapa Discovery Center (76 Kamehameha Ave). Artworks are located in the Waianuenue Ave. facing window, displaying some of the works selected for this year's show in the community. Youth Art Month is a big deal around here and we want as many people to be able to experience the artworks as possible! Both satellite exhibits will be on view until the end of March.
